UCT partners with Motsepe Foundation on gender equality event

20 August 2019 | Room 105, Bremner Building, Lower Campus, University of Cape Town | 17:00 – 19:00

The University of Cape Town (UCT) is partnering with the Motsepe Foundation and three other universities to host a dialogue on gender equality this afternoon.

The Universities in Dialogue event, under the topic “Gender Equality for South Africa’s Progress”, will be hosted by Dr Precious Moloi-Motsepe, chief executive officer and co-founder of the Motsepe Foundation in partnership with Professor Tawana Kupe, Vice-Chancellor and Principal of the University of Pretoria.

The aim of the dialogue series is to initiate a robust and solution-driven conversation among students from various universities around the most pressing concerns of the youth.

The inaugural dialogue will take place in Pretoria and link live via streaming to teams based at three other universities – UCT, University of Free State and the University of Witwatersrand.

It will be livestreamed on the Motsepe Foundation social media pages. Follow the conversation online using #UniDialogues.
