UCT to host eight graduation ceremonies

The University of Cape Town (UCT) will cap graduands at eight ceremonies from Monday, 28 March to Thursday, 31 March 2022. About 200 doctoral candidates are expected to graduate.

The events will take place outside Sarah Baartman Hall.

UCT Vice-Chancellor Professor Mamokgethi Phakeng said: "Getting to the graduation finish line is an accomplishment to be proud of and must be celebrated. Graduation is one of the highlights in our academic calendar, a time when we not only rejoice but acknowledge the tenacity, determination and extraordinary effort it took to achieve this remarkable milestone."

In recognising the need to still adhere to COVID-19 protocols while at the same time needing to create space to celebrate graduation, the graduation period will include an in person walk of celebration. This is an opportunity for each graduand to mark their achievement and celebrate their success together with their families.

All ceremonies will be live-streamed on the UCT News website (accessible from the UCT graduation web page) and via the university's social media platforms, Facebook, and Twitter.

The graduation celebrations will take place as follows:
