UCT teams up with CAF to kick off historic Football Management Executive programme

1 September 2024 | 15:30-17:30 | Graduate School of Business Conference Centre

The University of Cape Town (UCT) and the Confédération Africaine de Football (CAF) will launch the CAF Football Management Executive programme on Sunday, 1 September 2024. The programme aims to drive knowledge, create capacity, and strengthen administrative skills among Africa's football stakeholders.

The initiative is a management programme initiated by the CAF leadership for their member associations' administrative staff and officials to enhance skills, build capacity and drive efficiency to ensure African football administration and competitions are world class. UCT, as the top university in Africa and a collaborative partner, emphasises its role in supporting the development of football leadership in Africa.

UCT Vice-Chancellor Professor Mosa Moshabela will welcome CAF President Dr Patrice Motsepe and CAF General Secretary Véron Mosengo-Omba to this historic launch.

Members of the media are invited to witness history unfold as UCT and CAF usher in a new era in African football administration.

To RSVP, kindly send your details to Velisile Bukula no later than Wednesday, 28 August 2024.
